Dear Sir

Your favour of Nov 10 arrived some days since together with the catalogue of the Corcoran Art Gallery. Please accept my thanks. The catalogue is a very interesting one and I am pleased that my picture is to be included in such a fine collection. The delay in sending it to you has been unavoidable as I have had it varnished and have myself removed some of the dust that had gathered upon the old varnish and revarnished it. It shall be sent to you on Monday next. By then the varnish

will thoroughly dry. I will telegraph to you when the picture leaves Boston. The title that will appear in your catalogue will of course be only "Portrait of a Lady". This was a request I forgot to make in my letter to Mr French. and was the particulars desired of the original of the picture

Sincerely yours

Ray C. Porter
